

Earles visit to Lago, October 2021

Shawn and Jackie Earle
Cary, North Carolina
USA

Jackie's great-grandfather, Pietro Mazzuca (born in Lago 1867-1935 died Dunmore, Pennsylvania) emigrated from the Lago area in 1890, and settled in Northeastern Pennsylvania (near Scranton)

I have some idea of his ancestors, but no official records.

We enjoyed all of the beautiful artwork around Lago.

Francesco Domenico Cino was a perfect host, taking us to the cemetery and all of the churches.

And we loved the great food and drink (special Thank You to Maria Grazia at Pizzeria "Alla Chiazza")

I wasn't able to find graves, records or old locations of the Mazzuccas and their ancestors, so we'll have to come back!
